Connecting with the Immortal Masters and Beings of Light

by Dr. Susan Shumsky

Masters of Immortality

You will never die.

You are an immortal being of light, and you live forever in a body of light. This physical body that you temporarily inhabit is not your true home. You reside in a beautiful, radiant body of luminous spheres in multiple dimensions. You have never been born and you never die. You are ageless, without beginning or end.

Until now, you have probably identified yourself as your physical body, perishable and fleeting, subject to birth, survival, growth, change, decay, and death. Without a vision of immortality, you see only the shell. Without recognizing the underlying permanence of your being, you perceive only the chains of mortal life.

Beyond the mortal boundaries of your physical form, you embody luminous vibratory bodies in multiple dimensions. This claim might seem fantastic, but it concurs with the latest developments in theoretical physics. Superstring theory envisions a ten-dimensional or eleven-dimensional space-time in which elementary particles are like musical notes played on a violin—"excitation modes" of inconceivably tiny elementary strings.

In other words, everything in the universe is made of vibration and light in manifold dimensions—including you. Infinitesimal elementary particles are swirling, shifting waves of colliding vibrations. These subtle elements, when broken down into their primary components, are simply pure energy. There is nothing in this cosmos with any solidity or substance whatsoever.

You can open your eyes to these dimensions beyond mortal boundaries. You can begin a journey of awakening to your immortal self, which is who you really are. This light being of divine radiance and glory is your true nature, beyond the physical realm of death. You are not this body. You are not this mind. You are a magnificent being of brilliant, beautiful light—a being that never dies.

You Are the Source of Wisdom

Deep within your soul is a wise sage, the source of all wisdom. This "in-house counselor" is hidden within the recesses of your heart. Like a treasure buried at the bottom of the sea, it can only be used when brought to the surface. You have the capacity to dive deep within, recover this treasure, and open it. Only it takes faith in yourself and trust in a higher power.

Dive into the profound depths of that ocean to reclaim the "pearl of great price." It is said that this cannot be gained by gold, silver, onyx, sapphire, coral, or pearls, for "the price of wisdom is above rubies." Where is such wisdom found? Where is the treasure more precious than any cargo from the seven seas? It is the chamber of jewels within your own heart.

You are that treasure.

You are not alone and never have been. From your very first breath, a divine, immortal being of great light and beauty stood at the bedside of your mother, breathing vital energy into your being, kindling the very spark of life. And, when it comes time to leave this world, this radiant, eternal light-being will guide you home again.

This luminous inner divine being is all-powerful. It loves you unconditionally and is with you always. It will never leave you. This divine radiance within your soul is your own inner counselor, whom you might call your guardian angel, inner guru, higher self, divine being, inner divinity, or master-teacher within.

Nothing happens without your inner teacher's guidance. With every step you take, every decision, every move, your resplendent inner guru is always within you, guiding you, comforting you, and bringing you peace—even when you are not consciously aware of it.

Now is time to realize your radiant, beloved inner guru. Now is time to open to the divine effulgence within yourself. Now is time to wake up and realize who you truly are—an everlasting, powerful, vast, glorious being.

As a seeker of inner wisdom, perhaps you have already awakened to profound inner realities. Or maybe you think you have not. In either case, you can develop a deep understanding of the immortal nature of your being.

How can I say this with such confidence? Because the methods I teach have already helped tens of thousands of people realize their own eternal nature for themselves.

Eternal Life Is Yours

Eternity is your own nature. It is not something far away, impossible to attain, or reserved only for prophets that lived thousands of years ago. You were born to live immortal life and walk beyond death now. You have within your own soul a resplendent being of light that never dies. That is who you really are. Trust in that and place your life in the hands of that divine master of immortality. That inner guru will guide you home again to the place of perfect peace and eternal life—your true abode.

You are blessed and beloved of God, and your immortal self is one with God. When you find that buried treasure, never will you be alone again. Open your mind and heart to the abundant riches of that treasure chest within. You can discover and meet the immortal masters of light. You can develop your own awareness of eternal life within you. Open your heart and soul to new vistas of consciousness not yet awakened within you. Sail into an ocean of eternal life on waves of bliss.

It is time to begin your inner journey to immortal life now.
